Do you know what the Salvation Army said was maybe the 'most radical thing we can do to help the environment'? So are you ready in Christ?

Sociologists develop theories to explain social phenomena. Watch.

When our pioneers needed strength and power, they did not look to the state for it, they got on their knees and sought God ALONE for it. We are seeing a great 'gathering' of the apostate churches and religions uniting with the state and being controlled by that 'mother of harlots', the Roman Catholic Church. We might say that Whitman, in bringing to the poem his grief for his lost love and his anxiety over the troubled nation, began in the position of the mockingbird—forlorn, depressed, alienated, and compulsive—and found transcendence and survival by prostrating himself before the earth spirits on the sacred site of his origins.

So we can see all the needed systems being put in place ready for the enforcement. hunter-gatherers tend to be nomadic, they generally do not have the possibility to store surplus food.
