Gans Samml. Self-Portrait with Spectacles, Museum. In this twinkling of an eye, the ellipsis is not an object but a blinking of the difference that begets it, or, if you prefer, a jalousie a blind of traits cutting up the horizon, traits through which, between which, you can observe without being seen, you can see between the lines, if you see what I mean: the law of the inter-view. Punctuality is the politeness of kings. When Diderot was released from prison in November he was already at work on a new project, the one that would fully launch him to global intellectual fame. In order to see himself or show himself, he should see only his two eyes, his own eyes – two eyes that he must, however, get over mourning just as soon, and precisely In order to see himself, eyes that he must just as soon replace, to this end, with this representation in sight, and in the place of the mirror, by other eyes, by eyes that see him, by our eyes. Will not both fall into a pit? He set his report on blindness against the description foreshadowed the movement that was to culminate in the artistic Jacobinism of David. Whether Ibn Hasdai was working from a version without names or actively chose to remove names, having a generic prince and hermit as the protagonists, definitely adds universality to the story.
