In addition to just plain old poor audio quality the narrator, who sounds a great deal like the vaguely insane person who narrated the Amelia Peabody mysteries I tried a few months ago, wasn't doing it for me. Halsey returns a few days later, The Circular Staircase his friend and without an explanation, but by then many other developments have occurred, The Circular Staircase the chagrin of the residents. Rinehart started working on the play in with Avery Hopwood ; they made a number of alterations to the source to prepare it for the stage.

But it's interesting reading especially if you love history because of the era. At the Foot of the Stairs. I didn't care for it but obviously I wasn't born in this time period .

As a straight forward detective story, The Circular Staircase is a classic. The fact, being able to laugh at the story while still being intrigued by the mystery was one of my favorite parts of the book!
