It's cute and funny. When she meets a Seattle Sharks football player, a series of events has them temporarily thrown together, only to find that they actually like spending time. Grateful for the rescue, Erin agrees to stand by Tim during the resulting press conference and host him at a hospital charity event.

However, a misunderstanding with the press throws them together in a fake engagement. I'll Be Home For Christmas. She shares her home with a wonderful husband, two uncivilized Maine Coons, and a rambunctious chocolate Lab.

Highly recommended and looking forward to "Rushing Amy". Because the stakes are always highest when you're playing for keeps. Dropping Gloves.
