It was an organization built on the flood of those who tried to take them down, sweat of laborers who built the houses in North Philly, and Mercy Row: A Philadelphia Story tears of those that lost loved ones during the rise of this organization. Tommy guns, speakeasies, dames, corruption all feature prominently. I also felt that the characterisation was rather static – not fleshed out enough if you will and I didnt really relate to any one therefore for me it fell a bit flat. Paperbackfirstpages.
