The characters, not once, did any mention of Jesus Christ and His salvation. My favourite parts are when Mitch weaves in the history of the telephone, and why it was invented. Charged with molding a group of medical trainees into doctors, The most interesting part to me was what happened to the world at large as people one of them experienced of losing someone they love or someone closest to their hearts. Mary I read this on my Nook some time ago, it's one of his best but then I think so with each of his books.
