When you look at religious myths as simply myths, they say more about the people who created them and their understanding of the world at that time, then they do about god. May I not reply with a parable?

Canada U. You're free to accept, augment or reject what I have to offer. Since then my remarks have been elaborated and exaggerated nearly beyond recognition. A reappraisal of all values gradually takes place insofar as everything that does not clearly serve the utopian ends is regarded and treated as inferior.
