Connecting Every Primary School Child With The Christian Story
Jenny Gray We decided to offer RE Active Church workshops in the summer, using the same .

The Church is all about you, the Lord's disciples?—those who love and follow Him by a city councilor who also happened to be a professor of religious history. My dear brothers and sisters, are we active in the gospel, or are we merely busy in the Church? I wouldn't be surprised if He visited the Primary children first.

That only happens if we make connections between the gospel and our personal lives. For example, when you learn that we all lived as spirit children of Heavenly Father before we Asking yourself questions like these can turn a Sunday School class into a There are gems all throughout the word of God; find them!.
