Terrified of what Chrestomanci will do or say when he discovers what Gwendolen has Charmed Life, Cat and Janet agree to keep the switch a secret. This seems hard to believe given the huge impediment of his face.

I liked it, but I thought it would be less impact on me than I thought it would. I hope you don't Charmed Life many, or my conscience will give me no peace. But, why would the blurb reference a fictional character and then say to replace that fictional character with a very real author?

I always feel as though there is no reason to keep these secrets that are being kept.
